

Charles William Jones

November 30, 1958 - February 14, 2016

Charles William Jones was born November 30, 1958 in Mattson, Mississippi. He was the second child of Letha Stafford Jones and Henry Jones.

C.W., as he was called by family and friends, accepted Christ at an early age joining Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist Church under Rev. Bass in Chicago, Illinois. He graduated from Spaulding High School also in Chicago.

C.W. was a warm and gentle spirit. In spite of his disability, he operated daily functions from his wheelchair. C.W. never asked anyone to do anything for him that he could do for himself. (That included everything.) He was a true businessman. He was a forerunner for the ADA (American Disability Act) which requires the same privileges for the disabled as those who do not have a disability. C.W. rode CTA buses long before the law was passed to provide equal access. He didn't; need a bus lift - just determination. He traveled throughout the city.

C.W. was called home on Sunday, February 14, 2016. He was preceded in death by both parents; one brother, Jeffrey Jones.

C.W. leaves to cherish his memories, one brother, Henry Lee Jones; five aunts, Pearlean Jones, Minnie Jones, Mildred Reed, Audrey Johnson and Leona Buford; and a host of cousins and many friends especially the staff and residents of Countryside Residential Home.
