

Charlie Mae Chriss

March 30, 1944 - February 3, 2019

Charlie Mae Chriss was born on March 30, 1944 to Jessie Lee Chriss and Samuel Smith. She was born and raised in Chicago, Illinois.

Charlie worked as a Home Care Provider for many years. She was adored by all of her clients and in turn was hired privately by one of her clients. In 1994, she was a recipient of the Community Care Program In-Home worker Award.

Charlie was a devout evangelist. She lived to share and teach the gospel to others. With her faith, love, wisdom, and strong will, she changed many lives.

Some of her interests were studying the Bible, teaching the Bible, writing, and music.

On February 3, 2019, Charlie rested from her labors. She was preceded in death by her mother, Jessie Lee; her father, Samuel; her sister, Deloris; her brother AB; and her son, Jonathan.

Charlie Mae Chriss leaves to cherish her memory, her sister, Yvonne Morgan-Carter (Maxwell); her daughter, Argusta Riley-Carter (Charles); six grandchildren, Jaqueline, Vekeva, Charles Jr., Martise, Charlia, and Jeffrey; sixteen great grandchildren; three great-great grandchildren; two nieces, Crysta and Dekeisha; four nephews, Roy, Shawn, Martinus, and Quintez; a host of family and friends.
