

Cheryl Lynn Coleman

August 1, 1962 - October 10, 2017

Cheryl Lynn Coleman was born in Chicago, Illinois on August 1, 1962 to proud parents, Joseph and Yvonne Coleman. Two years and eight months later Lynns' little brother Derryl was born. Lynn instantly became Derryls' best friend and eventually a surrogate mother. Nurturing came so easily to Lynn.

Lynn grew and developed in the London Townhouse area of Chicago, attending Wendell Smith Grammar School and Corliss High School. She lived on the south side of Chicago before relocating as a young adult to the Michigan area. In Chicago, she was employed as a book-keeper. She also worked as long-distance truck driver in the western United States. This was not her "cup of tea." Driving in the mountains were a bit too intimidating for Lynn and she decided to change vocation. She eventually settled in the state Michigan and began working in the automobile industry.

She often traveled from Michigan to Chicago to check on her Dad. Her biggest thrill on these trips was to take him shopping, getting him something fashionable to wear and spending quality time with him.

Lynn departed this life peacefully in her sleep on Tuesday, October 10, 2017. Lynn was preceded in death by her Maternal Grandparents, Maggie and Edward Kirkland and Paternal Grandparents, Edith and Clem Price; her Mother, Yvonne; and Her Brother, Keith.

She leaves to cherish her amazing memory, her Father, Joseph (Ann); her Brothers, Derryl (Cherie) and Vernon; her Sisters, Cheryl (Ronald), Tonya (Kenneth) and Charlotte; a special aunt, Maxine Fleming; and a host of loving relatives and friends.

Lynn so often would E-mail inspirational messages to her love ones. These messages will remain with us forever. She is gone, but will never be forgotten.
