

Christian D. Johnson-Woods

November 18, 1986 - February 10, 2015

Christian D. Johnson-Woods was born November 18, 1986 in Chicago, Illinois to Wilbert and Rhonda Johnson-Woods.

Christian attended Ninõs Heroes Elementary School. He attended and graduated from Midwest Theological Institute in March of 2007.

In September 2006, Christian was offered a position at The Blackstone Hotel in management of the hotel industry. During his time there he received many awards, promotions, recognition and respect from his peers. In October of 2014, Christian had to resign from his position due to medical reasons.

Christian attended Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church at an early age under the pastorate of Rev. Andrew D. Hunt Jr. On June 5, 2008, at the age of 21, Christian was baptized by Rev. Hunt at Liberty Baptist Church. Later he began attending New Life Covenant Church under the teaching of Pastor John F. Hannah.

A loving and compassionate person that had charisma and charm, Christian was not a stranger to anyone he met. "CJ" loved technology, but his true love was his cellphone. He loved music, cars, entertaining with friends and the best of fine dining.

On February 10, 2015, Christian fell asleep in death. He was preceded in death by his father, Wilbert Johnson; grandmother, Mattye Sims; grandfathers, James Sims Jr. and Robert Johnson.

Christian leaves to cherish his memories, his loving mother, Rhonda; his siblings, Joe, Wilbert, Wesley, LaKita and Tierra; grandfather, Nathaniel Askew; grandmother, Olivia Johnson; two uncles, Larrice and Charles; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
