

Clarence Earl Lang

September 3, 1949 - June 5, 2013

Clarence Earl Lang was born September 3, 1949 in Chicago, Illinois to the proud parents of Mary Johnson Lang and Will Lang Sr. Raised by a loving Christian mother and father, he was the fourth child born to this union and reared alongside three brothers and one sister.

Clarence graduated from Daniel Hale Williams Elementary School and completed his education at Wendell Phillips High School.

After a study of God's Word the Bible, Clarence dedicated his life to Jehovah and symbolized his dedication through water baptism on July 2, 1976, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. Clarence served Jehovah faithfully until his death.

Clarence was a longtime employee of the Chicago Transit Authority. Over the course of his long life "P.A.", as he was known by family and friends, had a number of interests, including art, music and sports.

Clarence was preceded in death by his father, Will Sr.; and his siblings, Kermit, Julius, Earnestine, Levi and Gerald.

Clarence leaves to cherish his memories, his wife of 20 years, Diane; sons, Clarence Earl Jr. (Jennifer), Marcellus, Paul, Darrell and Daniel; stepson,

Anthony Sr.; a granddaughter, Zoe; a grandson, Anthony Jr.; his mother, Mary; siblings, Yvonne (Orville), Donald, DeEdward (Carol), Will Jr. and Smiley (Darcel); mother-in-law and father-in-law, Dossie and Hattie McIntosh; three sisters-in-law, Maner Jean, Annette and Rochelle; two brothers-in-law, Dossie Jr. and Danny; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and good friends.
