

Clementine Laverne Smith

May 13, 1921 - April 16, 2013

Clementine Laverne Smith, also known as, "Clem", was born in Chicago, Illinois to Charles and Lucille Holmes 91 years ago. Clem was the only daughter with two brothers, Charles Jr. and Ralph.

Clem attended Oakland Elementary and Wendell Phillips Academy High School.

Clementine worked at Western Electric in Chicago, IL and retired after 40 years of service.

Clem was wed to Edward Smith and from this union two wonderful children were born Eric and Denise. She was a loving and devoted mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother.

After a study of God's word the Bible, Clem symbolized her dedication to Jehovah God by water baptism at the age of 86. She loved Jehovah and cherished the hope of a resurrection on earth as promised for man in the Bible. (Acts 24:15). She was a very caring and generous person to all.

Those cherishing her memory are her children: Eric and Denise; son-in-law: Monte White Jr.; one granddaughter: Monique White; one grandson-in-law: Ervan White; and two great grandchildren: Natalie and Caleb; and a host of spiritual brothers and sisters.
