

Mr. Cleophas Fultz

November 26, 1942 - May 5, 2021

Cleophas Fultz was born to the union of Joseph and Fannie Fultz on November 26, 1942 in Ruleville, Mississippi.

Cleophas graduated from Central High School. He was a man of many talents that might have put him at the level of a college graduate. After he relocated to Chicago, Illinois, he was employed at Chicago Transit Authority (CTA) where he later retired from.

Cleophas met and fell in love with Clara Mukes, he asked her for her hand in marriage, and the two joined in holy matrimony. To this union, one son was born DiAvalon Fultz.

Throughout his life, Cleophas made many accomplishments. One of these was his dedication to Jehovah God in 1972, when he symbolized his dedication through water baptism becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. He was a loyal and faithful servant that preached the good news about God's kingdom for almost 50 years.

On May 5, 2021, Cleophas fell asleep in death. His family looks forward to God's promise of a paradise earth, where no resident will say "I am sick".

Cleophas leaves to cherish his memories, his loving wife Clara; one son

DiAvalon Fultz; two sisters Theresa Ann Fultz and Barbara Triplett (Otha); and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
