

Clinton Smith

June 16, 1973 - October 17, 2012

I am Clinton Smith. I could let someone give you a traditional background and history of my life, but who better to tell you than me. So, here's my story.

I was born in Chicago, Illinois on June 6, 1973 to Deborah Smith and Clinton Jelks. I attended McCorkle Elementary School and I received my GED at Kennedy King College. I grew up in the Robert Taylor Homes and played Little League for the Robert Taylor Hornets. I loved video games and my favorite foods were cereal and eggs.

I enjoyed a normal childhood with my family and friends. I didn't go to church, I did believe in God. I've done a lot of things in my life, some good and some not so good, but I don't have any regrets. I enjoyed my life and lived it my way.

Most of the people who knew me, loved me for he crazy, silly, sometimes off the wall ways that were all me. I wasn't one who demonstrated my love the same as everyone else, but it was always shown in my actions. "I Love You" can be shown in so many forms and I always found a way to show what I couldn't always say.

I want to tell my sisters, brothers and family, I Love You all. You were my life. I gave all that I came here to give and my time is now up. I want to express my love for my daughters, LaKayla and Tatiana, may your lives be filled with joy. I will always be by your side. To the woman I loved who drove me as crazy as I drove her, thank you for loving me for me.

On Wednesday, October 17, 2012, Clinton was called home to be with the Lord. He was preceded in death by his mother Deborah; and his father, Clinton.

Clinton leaves to cherish his loving memories, his companion, Patricia; his stepdad, Jimmy Smith (Anna); his Godparents, Carol and Robert; grandmother, Ora Richardson; two daughters, LaKayla and Tatiana; seven sisters, Shirley (Che), Avis, Damika, Rochette, Kita, Raynette (Dan) and Lisa; five brothers, Jeffery (Kamilah), Jimmy Jr., Clinton, Lance and Michael; eighteen aunts, Fruitee, Alice, Brenda, Wonda Jean, Sandra, Lytisha, Jackie, Gloria, Ada, Violet, Mildred, Ann, Barbara (Freddie), Annie, Mary Ann, Stephanie, Shelia and Joann; thirteen uncles, Lawrence, Gregory Neal, Carterris, Keith, Clarence, Bruce, Eddie, Willie Jr., George, Benny, Joseph, Ernest Jr., and Skip; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends which he loved dearly.

Clint the King!

Bye Y'all
