

Conius Lee Jr.

March 5, 1942 - January 15, 2011

Conius Lee Jr. was born on March 5, 1942 in Brownsville, Tennessee to Conius Sr. and Lela Mae Lee. He was the seventh of seven sons.

Conius graduated from West High School in Jackson, TN; shortly thereafter, he was drafted to serve in the United States Army for three years. While in the Army, he married his high school sweetheart, Liller Lucas on August 11, 1965. After his discharge from the Army, they moved to Chicago, Illinois.

Conius was employed with the Chicago Transit Authority (CTA) as a bus driver for years before he decided to start his own business, C & F Towing, until his health began to fail. He also enjoyed tinkering around on his cars, gardening and watching ball games.

Conius dearly loved his family and he supported them in their worship. For awhile he studied the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses and he showed an appreciation for the truth.

On January 15, 2011, Conius Lee Jr. fell asleep in death. He was preceded in death by his parents and his six brothers.

Conius leaves to cherish his memories, his loving and devoted wife Liller Lee; their three children Traci (Edward) Croxton, Conius "Ron" Lee III, and Corey

(Lauren) Lee; his daughter Trenell Blair; his grandchildren Shayna Lee and Jacqueline Blair and Greg (Nicole) Hill and Family; his mother-in-law Anna Mae Lucas; his special niece Connie Lee; his cousin Wilma Chism; and a host of sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. He will be greatly missed.
