

Mrs. Corinne Scott

November 6, 1929 - August 24, 2021

Corinne Scott, better known as “Candy,” was born on November 6, 1929 in Chicago, Illinois. She was the sixth of fourteen children. Candy attended and graduated from Forrestville Elementary School and DuSable High School, where she received many accolades for her track and field skills including, having a feature story in the local newspaper.

Corinne met the love of her life and married him in 1952. From this union, three children were born.

Candy had many hobbies. She enjoyed playing cards, bingo, softball, gardening, cooking, singing, dancing, shopping, traveling, and going to the casino. She was also an avid bowler who faithfully competed in a league every Saturday morning at Skyway Bowl for over a decade. Additionally, Candy was an outstanding seamstress with impeccable taste and fabulous style, and often designed and made many of her own outfits. Candy’s hands were not only good for sewing, but she was very handy around the house. As her name “Candy” suggests, she was a lover of all things sweet.

Corinne had a diverse career in several industries. She worked at R.R. Donnelley & Sons, the United States Post Office, and Sunrise Transportation Service. After having her youngest child, she retired and focused on being a housewife, election judge, bookkeeper, and seasonal tax preparer.
