

Cornell Thornton

February 8, 1983 - November 5, 2017

Cornell Nicholas Thornton was born February 8, 1983 in Chicago, Illinois, to parents, Maggie Thornton and Seymour Whorley. Cornell was their only child together.

As an infant, Cornell was a physically challenged (sickly) child. Despite his health issues, Cornell stood six feet tall and had a booming personality. He was loved and adored by all, and possessed a dry wit and a willingness to help others. His character and personality touched those he met.

Cornell graduated from Harper High School, and attended Hinds Community College in Utica, Mississippi and Kennedy-King College in Chicago. Though restricted with health issues, Cornell cared for his Mother until her death. In addition, he used his own resources to help those around him in any way that he could.

Both parents preceded Cornell in death.

Cornell leaves to cherish his memory, three sisters, Coreatha Whorley, Delores Whorley, and Chanel (Anthony) Hudson; one niece, Kiante Whorley; a great niece, Kamari Whorley; great nephew, Kamaje Whorley; a very special aunt, Mary Thornton-Washington; a very special uncle, Michael Thornton; several aunts, uncles, cousins, and a host of relatives and friends. He also leaves past and present neighbors of the 5600 block of South Carpenter Street who will cherish his memory.
