

Craig Black

March 21, 1963 - July 28, 2017

Born Into Time: Craig Black was born on March, 21, 1963. He was the eighth child born to Vertran and Mae Wilson. Craig graduated from Tesla Elementary School and attended Hyde Park Career Academy High School.

>>>In This Life: Craig was a loving brother with a very unique personality. Craig held occupations as a Caddie at Jackson Park Golf Course, Grocery Bagger at Wonder Food Store and he was employed at U.S. Steel 89th Street plant.

Craig enjoyed being with family and friends, listening to music, singing, dancing, watching TV, and playing cards. Craig liked to sing “Always and Forever”. In his younger days, Craig enjoyed playing baseball and football and was a Cub Scout at Mt. Pleasant M.B. Church.

Adopted By God: Craig was born and raised in a Christian home and accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age. He was baptized at First Mount Calvary Missionary Baptist Church, under the leadership of the late Rev. Samuel M. Hart, Sr. As a child, Craig was a member of the S.M.H. Youth Choir. His favorite gospel song was “Christ is All”.

The Will Of God: After battling health issues, Craig departed this life on Friday,

July 28, 2017, at Continental Nursing Home in Chicago, IL. His father, Vertran; and his brother, Glenwood; and his brother-in-law, Gary preceded him in death.

In Celebration of His Life: Craig leaves to cherish his memories: his mother, Mae Wilson; four brothers: Curtis, Alvin (Bobbie), Irvin, and Steven; four sisters: Wanda (Chester), Wauldine, Carolyn, and Tricia (Johnny); two aunts: Ratha Cargill and Bertha Glinsey; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
