

Craig Stephen Morgan

July 7, 1951 - May 1, 2013

Craig Stephen Morgan was born on July 7, 1951 in Chicago, Illinois to Leon and Ruth Lee Morgan. He was the oldest of two children born to this union.

Craig spent his early years growing up on 66th and Drexel in the Woodlawn community. He attended Sunday School at Woodlawn A.M.E. Church.

Craig graduated from Horace Mann Elementary School in 1966 and from Chicago Vocational High School (CVS) in 1970. During his high school years he played on the varsity football team. After high school, Craig attended one of the Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU), Paul Quinn College in Waco, Texas. He graduated in 1974 with a Bachelors degree in Business Administration with a minor in Accounting.

Although Craig never married nor had any children of his own, he loved his family and they were important in his life.

On May 1, 2013, Craig closed his eyes in death. He was preceded in death by his parents, Leon and Ruth Lee; his sister, Ollie; his brother-in-law, Charles "Yapree"; his uncles, Eddie Wilson and James Pettye; his aunts, Helen Morgan and Sharon Morgan; and his nephew, Malon.

Craig leaves to cherish his memories, his sister, Denise; his nephews, Malik

(Sarah), Talepe, Khahde and Kobi; his niece, Tyelise; his aunts, Dorothy Wilson, Ida Mae Pettye and Victoria Mayweather (James); his uncles, Joseph Morgan and Rudolph Morgan; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.
