

Cynthia Louise Banks

March 1, 1957 - February 1, 2019

Cynthia Banks was born on March 29, 1957 and Gary, Indiana to Orlando Phillips (Mayhomes) and Mary Thompson (Mayhomes).

Cynthia was an imaginative and creative child who loved sci-fi, listening to stories and telling elaborate stories as well.

Her father introduced her to Jehovah and the truth at an early age. She dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication by water baptism on April 11, 1983. She was a full-time pioneer despite having many health challenges. Cynthia was a very encouraging sister in the congregation and was always willing to be to help others.

On February 1, 2019, Cynthia Banks fell sleep in death. She will be greatly missed but never forgotten.

Cynthia leaves to cherish and love and memories, her husband Johnnie Banks; mother Mary Edwards; two sisters Gwendolyn (Ray) Lathon and Sharon Phillips; two brothers Orlando (Saundra Cox) Mayhomes Jr. and William Phillips; two children LeKisha Montgomery and Michael (Mary) Montgomery; eight grandchildren Nia, Iman, Ian, Leilani, Angel, LeAnthony, Michaela and Michael Jr.; and a host of loving aunts, cousins, and very dear friends.
