

Cynthia Denson-Anderson

March 29, 1949 - April 29, 2012

Cynthia Denson-Anderson was born on March 29, 1949 to Mattie Lee Williams and Lewis Denson in Belzoni, Mississippi.

Cynthia attended Montgomery High School where she received her diploma.

In 1969, Cynthia married Mr. Arthur Anderson. In that same year the two of them moved to Chicago, Illinois.

Cynthia was employed briefly at the United States Post Office. She loved plants and had a fondness for collecting dolls.

After a careful study of God's word, Cynthia dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism on June 12, 1987. She enjoyed learning about Jehovah and sharing her knowledge of him with others.

She looked forward to his promise of an earthly paradise where there will be no more sickness and death.

On April 29, 2012, Cynthia fell asleep in death. She is preceded in death by her mom, and her brother Willie Lee Williams.

Cynthia leaves to cherish her memory, a husband of 43 years, Arthur

Anderson; four children, Anastasia, Andre (Yvonne) Lionel and Leonard
Anderson; eight stepchildren, Arthur, Patricia, Anthony, Linda, Jumard, Mekeda, Ericka and Lamount Brooks; four grandchildren, LaSanta, Camron, Mackenzie and Makala; three brothers, Sam, Lewis and Michael Williams; three sisters, Katherine Vassar, Judy Anderson and Pattie York; and a host of other relatives and friends.
