

Damian Lee Caraway

March 2, 1983 - May 29, 2016

DAMIAN LEE CARAWAY was born March 2, 1983 in Chicago Heights, IL to Crystal Caraway and Theodius Luster (aka Tariq Shabazz). When he was little he used to be the class clown and comedian of the bunch. Damian enjoyed playing board and card games as a child and an adult. Damian had an infectious smile and made everybody laugh when he was around. He loved to dress in the latest fashion and he enjoyed chillin' or cooking up a lil somin' somin' and loved to critique everyone's food. Family was important to him and he considered everybody family. Damian knew how to wear you down and make you do something for him whether you wanted to or not just by asking you over and over again until you finally said yes. He always had to have the last word. He was a boy scout, a mama's boy, a grandma's boy and auntie's favorite because he knew how to make all of them smile. Damian truly had the gift of gab with the ladies and one of his famous quotes is "Big Girls Need Love Too" and he was more than happy to share his love.

On May 29, 2016, Damian fell asleep in death. He leaves behind to cherish his memories his parents, four Sons and four Daughters to carry on his name: Jaylen-15, Janiah-13, Laniah-12, Damian Jr.-11, Journey-9, Dalen-9, Taniah-8, and Da`vion-1 Caraway. He also leaves behind a Brother, Michael Danta Caraway; Grandmother, Sandra Young; Aunts, Constance and Lana Caraway, Aletha Luster and Adrian Rolland; Cousins: LeKisha Dawkins, Dajuan Caraway, Lamarr Jones, Chasity Beckless, Demetrius Taborn, Davonta

Drakes, Maxlien Crawford; the mothers of his children, Keonia Saulsberry, Torra Johnson, Sylvia Boyd and Shavonda Whittington; and a host of nephews, nieces, second cousins and friends. Preceding him in death was his paternal grandmother, Aletha Luster and cousin Messiah Dawkins.
