

Dana Rae Fletcher

September 12, 1963 - April 17, 2023

Dana Rae Fletcher was born September 12, 1963 in Provident Hospital, Chicago Illinois, to the union of Aaron Fletcher Sr and Rochelle. As children her mother being one of Jehovah's Witnesses took them to the weekly meetings at the Kingdom Hall. Dana took her spiritual training seriously and grew to love Jehovah she was convinced of his promises. She embraced her religion by getting baptized on June 23, 1979, which she remained faithful throughout her life.

Dana received her high school diploma from Wendell Phillips High School, Chicago, Illinois and after graduation went to work for Sears & Roebuck.. After leaving Sears she decided because of her love for people on September 1, 2007 entered the full time ministry expanding her service. She was out regularly letting people know about her loving God's promises, one being the hope of the resurrection which she looked forward to as well.

Dana was very easy to be around. She would befriend any new comer that walked through the Kingdom Hall doors, no one was a stranger. She enjoyed life and a good time especially with family and friends joking around. Dana had a love for music and a good ear for it. She always had a willing spirit if you needed pictures, videos or a DJ she was there with all of her equipment. Dana was very particular about her equipment anyone around the DJ table, she would make clear "do not touch my equipment or CD's.

On April 17, 2023, Dana Fletcher fell asleep in death.
