

Daniel Simeon Edwards

February 19, 1973 - October 30, 2016

Daniel Simeon Edwards was born on February 19, 1973 in Alexander City, Alabama.

After a careful study of the Bible, Daniel dedicated his life to Jehovah. At the age of 14, he symbolized his dedication through water baptism on October 24, 1987, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. He lovingly served his God Jehovah for nearly 40 years, even serving as a Ministerial Servant at one time. He had a great love and passion for Jehovah.

Daniel united in marriage to Tanya M. Haley on November 25, 2000. "Doc", as some called him, was a husband of nearly 16 years.

Known as a caring and sensitive person, Daniel at times felt insecure about his true abilities. He also had a great love for computers and people in general.

On October 30, 2016, Daniel fell asleep in death in Chicago, Illinois.

Daniel left his loving imprint on his wife, Tanya; his children, Alexander and Abigail; his parents, Dwight and Lilla Marsha Edwards; one brother, David (Tiffany); one aunt, Catherine (Bernard) Crittenden; and a host of other aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and countless close friends.

“ Im so sorry for your loss Edwards family. May the words of Isaiah 25:8 comfort you: "He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces..." How happy we can be knowing we'll see the loved ones we've lost in death again, and real soon too! Take comfort from God's word and "throw your burdens on Jehovah" until then.
