

Danyelle Dinee Cole-Brown

March 8, 1977 - October 5, 2018

Danyelle Dinee Cole-Brown was born on March 8, 1977 to her parents Winston and Evangelist Elizabeth Cole in Chicago Heights IL. Danny was the 6th child of 8 children.

Danyelle, affectionately known as “Danny and Muff”, was born and raised in holiness. She was a member of Holy Ghost Deliverance Church of God in Christ, where she was baptized.

Danyelle met the love of her life Jarvatis Brown and the two were united as one on August 13, 2011.

Danny/Muff was a faithful and devoted wife, mother, grandma (grana), sister, aunt, cousin and friend. Muff was a quiet and reserved person, however she loved her family and friends.

Danny graduated from Rich East High School in 1996. In 1996, she began to work for Value City Department Store as a Cashier Supervisor. A few years later she made a career change as a Social Worker for Aunt Martha’s Youth Program. She moved on to bigger things as she became a Child Care Provider for HGCD Child Care Center.

On October 5, 2018, Danyelle’s time on earth was done. She grabbed a hold of God's Heavenly Angels Hands and proceeded to march through the Pearly Gates of Heaven.

Danyelle "Muff/Danny" was preceded in death by her mother Evangelist Elizabeth Cole; two grandmothers Bertha Fisher and Carnease Harden; one brother William Harden; three nephews Willie Johnson III, JonTa Harden and DaMarcus Robert; and her favorite aunt Hattie Deere.

Danyelle Dinee Cole-Brown "Muff/Danny" leaves to cherish her loving and unforgettable memories, her husband Jarvatis Brown; one beautiful daughter Jazzmine Hughes; one handsome son Santonio Aldridge; one amazing grandbaby Yazzmine Hughes; father Winston Cole; three brothers LeArthur (Tammy) Harden, Derrick Harden and Arondi Cole; three sisters Marshon Terry, Bethanie Cole and Wynter Cole; many nieces and nephews that she was close to; and a host of family and friends that loved her dearly.

Muff will truly be missed for her sense of humor!!!!
