

Darrell L. Berry

October 15, 1966 - October 5, 2013

Darrell Berry was born on October 15, 1966 in Chicago, Illinois to Cirlie and Elizabeth Berry.

Darrell, fondly nicknamed "Heavy Duty" and "Big D", was a loving and very generous person, putting his family and friends needs ahead of his own. Always one to tell jokes, he kept everyone laughing.

Darrell had a great passion for reading. He would complete a book in one day.

Darrell traveled with his mother to London, Copenhagen, Denmark, Paris, France, Switzerland, Holland and Sweden, by the age of 13 years old.

Darrell leaves to cherish his memories, Loren Granderson Berry; his loving and devoted mother, Elizabeth Berry; two sons, Kyle Preston and Darrell Tyler; one daughter, Jada; two sisters, Gail Gamble and Nevada Ware (Dennis); two nephews, Christopher Gamble (Esperanza) and Jonathan Gamble; one niece, Corrine Gamble; one grand niece, India Elizabeth; and a host of other relatives and dear friends.

Darrell was very much loved and will be truly missed by everyone who was privileged to know him.

Darrell was a dear sweet person and I am so thankful that David introduced us and through our mutual love of books we became very close.
