

Darris Kennedy

April 7, 1956 - March 1, 2012

Darris Kennedy was born in Chicago, Illinois on April 7, 1956 to Willie and Estelle Kennedy.

From an early age, Darris was taught the truths of God's Word and dedicated his life to Jehovah. At the age of 12 he symbolized his dedication through water baptism, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Having a great and loving personality, Darris was a lover of music, had a very unique sense of humor and took life very seriously. He loved his mother. One of her fondest memories of him, was when he came home from school and he'd say "How are you old bird?", drop his coat and do a dance move, then he'd point to her and say "Now you do it!"

On Thursday, March 1, 2012, Darris fell asleep in death, at the age of 55.

Darris leaves to cherish his loving memories, his wife, Vicki; five children, Darris, Amid, Jeramy, David and Chelsea; two step children, Meghan and Melanie; his mother, Estelle; one brother, Larry; four granddaughters; and a host of other relatives and friends.
