After attending Catholic school throughout her elementary years and then Harlan High School, she lived her life freely traveling and working until she met the love of her life and married on November 17th, 1974. Through this union, they were blessed with 3 children. Deb loved to bring family together. She planned annual Fourth of July gatherings and annual trips to Six Flags Great America. “ Deb many of my favorite childhood memories start with You, my beautiful big sis & a mother figure as well. I remember you sitting in the kitchen with me helping mt spell/write my entire name, being the Girl Scout troop leader, the anual trips to Six Flags & the unforgettable Family Gatherings every year near the Pier behind the museum. Deb, rest in peace...GOD has called you home. Deborah, I really miss and Love, Love, Love You so very much❤️
