

Deborah June Lucas

November 29, 1960 - December 9, 2014

Deborah June Lucas was born on November 29, 1960 in Chicago, Illinois to Hubert and Ida Lucas.

Deborah attended Willia Cather Elementary and Cooley High Schools.

After a study of the Bible, Deborah dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism in 1983. Throughout her faithful years of loyally serving Jehovah, she attended the South Shore Congregation, the Jackson Park Congregation and later the Jeffrey Valley Congregation. She worked hard to proclaim God's Kingdom as the only hope for mankind.

On December 9, 2014, Deborah fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her mother and father, Ida and Hubert Lucas.

Deborah leaves to cherish her memories, two brothers, Hubert Lucas Jr. (Katherine) and Robert Lucas (Denise); two sisters, Janis Pochowicz and Sabrina Williams (Mack); two aunts, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, dear friends and neighbors, along with a host of sweet children she cared for and nurtured and Lily Owens who taught her Bible truths.
