

Deborah Jean Noble

January 8, 1951 - February 17, 2016

Deborah Jean Hill was born January 8, 1951 in Chicago, Illinois to WillieMae and Herbert Hill Sr.

In 1968, Deborah married Ricki Noble Sr. Their friendship began in kindergarten, blossomed in grade and high school which, resulted in over 60 years of friendship and marriage mates. Ricki was the love of her life.

Deborah dedicated her life to Jehovah God and symbolized her dedication through water baptism in 1976. She especially loved Jehovah's name, the Bible and the Bible's hope for a resurrection. She preached Bible based truths to people wherever she went, often sharing in the full time ministry while raising her children and working full-time. She was a faithful servant of Jehovah until her death.

She loved her family and friends and demonstrated this every day of her life. If Deborah could help, it was as good as done. She was wise beyond her years and always offered 'practical advice'. She was a peacemaker and her kindness and generosity touched many hearts.

Deb was multi-talented, worked in sales, loved to cook, entertain, dance, play bid whist and Phase 10, take pictures, record videos, travel and spend time with her family, especially Kaegan. One of her favorite 'spots' was Hawaii.

Because of her generosity, loving ways, and big heart, many friends throughout the years have had the opportunity to party with Deb & Ricki in Hawaii. Deb loved having 'coffee' with her friends, these were special moments she treasured. Deborah was a fine example and loved by so many.

She was preceded in death by her mother, WillieMae Johnson; her father, Herbert Hill Sr.; daughter, Toni; and son, Teyone.

Deborah leaves to cherish her memories, her loving husband, Ricki Sr.; her son Ricki Jr. (Alenda); daughter, Tonnietta (Toni); grandson, Kaegan; sisters, Linda Welch, Trudy Smith, Deitrich Johnson and Monique Fields; her brothers, Melvin Coleman, John Banks, Kurt Hill and Everett Hill; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
