

Del Ennis Harris

February 28, 1953 - February 28, 2019

Del Ennis Harris, also known as Jughead, was born February 28, 1953 in Chicago, Illinois, to the union of Alexander James Harris and Ruby Bell Harris, both parents preceded him in death. Ennis was the third of six siblings.

Ennis grew up in Hyde Park. He attended St. Ambrose and Komensky Elementary School where he graduated and went to Calumet and Joseph High School. He started working with his father at Inland and Youngstown Steel Mill.

He confessed his faith in Christ at an early age until he was called home, he attended St. Thomas and St. Ambrose Church's.

He loved swimming and playing baseball. When he was young he also had a passion for bowling. Ennis loved to dress and wear tailor made suits. He was a old school Hyde Parker. He also loved shiny cars. His favorite cousins were Darshai "Lil Darshai" and Avis, and best friends Chavis Cole and "Lil Dave" David. Ennis, better known as Jughead, was loved by many people. He was a Hype Legend.

Del Ennis Harris closed his eyes and rested from his labors on February 28, 2019. He was preceded in death by parents, two brothers Alexander and Aissia "Ace" Harris.

Del Ennis Harris leaves to cherish his memory his three loving children, daughter Shonece King (mother LENELL-Cookie), son Kehinda Mitchell (mother Audrey), and daughter Erica Harris-Huff (mother Bonnie); grandchildren Quadra, Kaihese, Ariel, Kenzie, and John Montgomery; sister Constance (Kenya) Harris; brother Michael (Ola) Harris, Sikira and Passion Harris, brother Christopher (Chewy) Harris and his five children; aunts, uncle, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.
