“ Since I was unable to make it to the services of my mother-in-law, my condolences go out to her sons. Although she was extremely ill, still mother Adams had an exuberance about her and I was sadden to find out she had passed, I just knew I would have more time to be with her, however, as it is stated, "Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought of the things for itself..." (AKJV Matt 6:34). I will remember what little time I had to be with her.
