

Deloris Prowell

April 18, 1944 - June 10, 2013

Deloris Prowell was born on April 18, 1944 in Brighton, Tennessee to Lucy Fayne Avery and Willie Avery. Raised by her grandparents, Richard and Pearlie Fayne, she was the eldest of four children.

At the age of 14, Deloris accepted Christ and was a member at Mt. Tipton C.M.E Church in Brighton, TN. She attended Frazier High School in Covington, TN and later relocated to Chicago, Illinois where she received her high school diploma at Hyde Park Career Academy.

In 1969, Deloris was united in matrimony to Willie Prowell. She began a career at Florshiem Shoe Company for 13 years, where she was also the company's union steward. Her employment later ended in 1986 from Marshall Field's due to long term illness.

Deloris, also known as "Baby Doll", "Lois", "Mama Dee" and "Granny", was known for being the kind of person that would help anyone at any cost. Everyone that has been a part of her life she has touched in some type of special way.

On June 10, 2013, Deloris was called home to be with The Lord, after fighting a long Battle of Cancer for 4 years. During that battle, she was never discouraged. She continued to shower everyone around her with her joyful heart and endless giving. She was preceded in death by her parents, Lucy and Willie Avery; her grandparents, Richard and Pearlie Fayne; and one brother, LeMar Fayne.

Deloris leaves to celebrate her loving memories, three daughters, Gwendolyn Powers (Jerry), Patricia Prowell-Gregory and Sonya Prowell; one brother, Wayne Bonner; one sister, Carolyn Fayne; eight grandchildren, Terrence, Wadell, Randal, LaKisha, Michael, Justin, Donovan and Brittany; seven great grandchildren; two nephews, Patrick Fayne and Frederick Fayne; two best friends, Delores "Katie" Smith and Joyce Scott; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.
