

Devon Richard Davis

August 6, 1982 - September 19, 2013

Devon Richard Davis, also known by family and friends as Buk, was born on August 6, 1982. Devon was born and raised in Chicago, Illinois to proud parents Richard Henry Davis Jr. and Antoinette Denise Davis (Brooks). He was loved and protected by his siblings, Tanisha Deanne Brooks, Brandon Terrell Davis and Denae Nicole Davis.

Devon attended Drexel Learning Center and Lindblom Technical High School. He worked various jobs but his passion was music. Devon was C.E.O., Founder and Artist of Hood Krazy Entertainment (H.K.E).

Devon was loving, loyal, and giving. Those that really knew Devon understood his true nature. There was nothing he wouldn't do for "Da Fam" and friends. Being "conscious" was important to him. His awareness motivated the way he spoke, dressed and ate.

On September 19, 2013, Devon was called home to rest. He leaves behind to cherish his loving memory, his parents Richard Henry Davis Jr. and Antoinette Denise Davis (Brooks); two sisters, Tanisha Deanne Brooks and Denae Nicole Davis; one brother, Brandon Terrell Davis (niece, Kali Gi Davis); paternal grandfather, Richard "Dicky" Davis Sr. that preceded him in death; paternal grandmother, Shirley "Mamma Dear" Smith; maternal grandfather, Clarence "Spike" Brooks that preceded him in death; maternal grandmother, Bertha Brooks; along with a host of paternal and maternal aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Devon also leaves behind a "stepmother", Deidre Hoskins and her children, Arielus, Troischyl and Mildred Estelle.

“ To the Davis family, I read about the death of Devon, I am so sorry. I am not acquainted with the family personally. But we all are in need of encouragement during times like this. The Bible gives us much comfort and a brighter hope for the future. Our Creator will soon remove all pain, suffering, and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:4)
