

Mr. Dewayne Tucker

October 2, 1989 - September 9, 2022

Today we celebrate the life of DeWayne Ladon Tucker aka Wayne.

Wayne was born on October 2, 1989 in Chicago, Illinois, to Alicia Smith and Dennis Tucker Sr., and not to mention his bonus parents Gloria William and Adolph William.

He attended Crete Monee High School after that he went to work as a Truck Loader for Belmar Staffing where he worked until his transition.

Wayne loved his family, his nieces and nephews were his pride and joy. He was especially close to his brother Dennis, they were road dogs, each other's right hand, they did everything together.

His passion was casinos and shopping downtown. He had a great sense of style, and enjoyed reading and music. He was one of the original bucket boys in Chicago, he loved beating those buckets.

Wayne was chill, kind, gracious and loving, with a sense of Adventure he wanted to see and do everything. He was a happy person.

On Friday, September 9, 2022, DeWayne Tucker made his transition at 1:01 pm at Riverside Hospital in Kankakee, Illinois. He was preceded in death by his grandparents Carrie Bell Tucker, James Tucker, Jackie Smith, and Deaonsy Smith; brothers Deon Smith and Eddie Brooks; and niece Akaila Howard.

Wayne leaves to cherish his memories, his father Dennis Tucker Sr.; his mother Alicia Smith; 11 siblings: four sisters Jacquila Tucker, Diamond Tucker, Lisa McGrady, Gwen Seawood, and Kamari; seven brothers Dennis Tucker Jr., Devin Waldron, Maurice Alexandria, Dentaye Douglas, Dante Tucker, Greg Seawood, and Deon Smith; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunties, uncles, cousins and friends.
