June 20, 1950 - March 3, 2022

Diane Scott was born Diane McGrew on June 20, 1950 in Chicago, Illinois to her parents Henry McGew and Dollie McGrew. She attended Central High School in Kalamazoo, Michigan. She moved to Chicago at the age of 16 years old to live with her aunt Margie Phillips, where she worked as a Preschool Teachers Assistant. She returned home to Kalamazoo to complete her senior year of high school and graduated on June 5, 1969.

After that, she permanently moved to Chicago where she met her love Steven Scott. The two courted for a couple of years and then united in Holy Matrimony on July 28, 1971. Theirs was a 35 year long union that produced two daughters, Shelley Necole (Rondal) Tucker, Ebonee Joi Scott and one son Trever Jarrod Scott. Diane was introduced to the truth of God's word in 1973. She dedicated her life to Jehovah God and symbolized her dedication by water baptism on July 22, 1984.

Indiana, doing business as Deecal Transportation, named after Diane and her sister Carolyn Jackson. They ran both businesses until her husband Steven's death on Sunday, April 9, 2006.

After Steven's untimely death, she began working as a home health aide for her employer Dianne Craft, until she began working at Preference Health Services in Highland, Indiana as an assistant office manager. Diane truly enjoyed her job. She developed a close bond with her boss Mrs. Katia Carmichael whom she affectionately called her other daughter. She also developed a close relationship with the other office staff members; Ms. Takea Simmons, Ms. Loretta Parker, Ms. Aisha Talley, Mrs. Shelley Tucker and Ms. Suzette Hayes.

On Thursday, January 6, 2022, Diane suffered a major stroke, which rendered her immobile and nonverbal. She remained in the hospital until she suffered a second stroke on Thursday, February 23, 2022. Afterwards she was placed in Hospice at Ingall's Memorial Hospital in Harvey, Illinois until she fell asleep in death on Thursday, March 3, 2022 at the age of 71 years old.
