

Donna Nunn

December 9, 1945 - October 27, 2017

Donna Annette Washington was born on December 9, 1945. She was the first child born to the union of James Monroe and Johnnie Mae Washington.

Donna was a lifelong resident of Chicago and attended Chicago Public Schools, where she excelled academically. In 2000, Donna graduated from Chicago State University with her Bachelor's Degree in Education. She was a voracious reader. She was a writer, a teacher and a lover of the arts, especially the culinary arts. She was also a dedicated and devout Jehovah's Witness for more than 50 years.

On December 5, 1969, Donna married her high school sweetheart, Robert Lee Nunn. To this union five children were born: Brian James, Robert Darren, Marie-Jeanine, Julienne Nicole, and Christopher Joseph. Donna proved to be a loving mother and a true and dedicated friend. She was smart, funny, and witty. She was also straightforward and had no issues expressing her true feelings. She was affectionately known to her family as Dynamite Donna.

Donna fell asleep in death on October 27, 2017. She was preceded in death by both her parents; her older brother, Wayne Wardlow; her sister, Bernadine; her son, Anthony Douglas Young; and her husband, Robert.

Donna leaves behind to cherish her memory, her children, Brian, Robert,

Marie-Jeanine, Julienne Sims (Michael) and Christopher; her grandchildren, D'Aireon, Ciara, Dominique, Deshonda, Nicholas, and Michelle; a great granddaughter, Kierra; her siblings, Norene Johnson, Glenda Campbell (Glenn), James Washington, and Myrna Pledger; and her best friend of nearly 50 years, Louise Goodloe; and a host of family and friends.
