

Mrs. Doretha Williams

November 30, 1947 - June 8, 2022

Doretha Logan Williams was born November 30, 1947, in Vicksburg, Mississippi. Her parents were Eddie Logan and Lula Mae Hall Logan who are now both deceased. Doretha attended Bowman High School, and Utica College both in Mississippi, also she received a certificate of Business Administration. Doretha relocated to Chicago in 1968, where she met and married Henry James Williams on January 31, 1971, which from that union two children were born, Michelle Doretha Williams – Jackson and Lesley Ann Williams.

Doretha was baptized as one of the Jehovah's Witnesses in 1970. She faithfully served Jehovah for 52 years. She learned about Jehovah's Witnesses from her sister, Joree McKinney who aided her into the truth. Doretha ministered to many people over those years, helping many to learn about Jehovah and Bible truths. Even when Doretha's faith was tested by many doctors and nurses due to not taking blood transfusions and by teachers questioning why her children did not celebrate holidays she remained faithful to Jehovah.

Doretha worked for the Board of Education for ten years as a cafeteria worker. She also earned her Illinois State license as a day care provider, which she did for over twenty years.

Doretha enjoyed being with friends and family and was a very humble and kind person, always thinking of helping others when she had the means. She was well known for making her famous butter cookies. Doretha also enjoyed time with her daughters, she was a hands-on mother and was well known at her children's elementary school by the teachers and students, when school officials ask for parents to volunteer to help assist on school trips or being a classroom attendant, she would volunteer to assist the teachers.

Doretha Logan Williams fell asleep in death Wednesday, June 8, 2022. She is preceded in death by her (husband) Henry James Williams, (brother) Herman Coleman, (niece) Yvonne Coleman, (nephew) Steven Coleman, (aunts) Alice Hall Spencer and Susie B. Hall, (uncles) Roosevelt, Thomas, Anthony and Walker Jr. Hall, (sister-in-law) Rosie Randall and (brother-in-law) Robert Williams.

Doretha leaves to mourn her (daughters) Lesley Ann Williams and Michelle Williams – Jackson, (son in law) Henry Jackson and (sister) Joree McKinney, (nephew) George Davis Jr. (nieces) Jacqueline Davis, Angela Davis, Lisa McKinney and Olivia McKinney, (sister-in-law) Geraldine Coleman, (cousin) Karen Muhammad, (mother-in-law) Mary Louise Reece, (in laws) Bobby MCCleary, Barbie MCCleary and Jackie Reece, and Lucis Reece Jr.

“ I appreciate my mom raising me to have respect for others and correcting my behavior when I was wrong. She always taught me to love others and to get along with other people. My mom cared for others and enjoyed talking with people a lot, but as her health faded she wasn't herself. She took care of people when they were sick. She fixed meals for neighbors, family and friends. She loved the truth and also loved sharing the bible message with others. I loved my mom and I hope to see her when all things are new. (Revelations 21:1-5)

Her Daughter,

Lesley
