

Doris Pinkston

August 13, 1940 - July 11, 2015

Doris Braggs Pinkston was born August 13, 1940 to Ella Watson and Edward Braggs. She was the fourth child in the family behind James Lee, Jessie and Maggie. She was the elder sister to Harry Green.

Doris attended and graduated as Valedictorian from Phelix High School in Marion, Arkansas. After graduation, she moved to Chicago, Illinois with her uncle Johnny Green in 1958 and never looked back. In Chicago, she met Charles Everett Pinkston and married him on April 23, 1960. From that union she and Charles produced five children, all boys.

In 1964, Doris was introduced to Jehovah's Witnesses. After a study of God's word, the Bible, she dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism in 1966. In 1986, she entered the full time ministry as a regular pioneer and she continued as one for the next 20 plus years. She has added many to dedicate their lives to Jehovah and proved to be a mother to many more.

When her beloved husband was stricken ill, Doris loyally fulfilled the scriptures in Proverbs Chapter 31, which describes a capable wife. She remained loyal to Jehovah until July 11, 2015 and now awaits Jesus call for those fro the memorial tombs. She was proceeded in death by her father, her mother and two brothers.

Doris leaves to cherish her loving memories, her husband, Charles E. Pinkston; her five sons, Everett, Frances Doyle, Paul Edward, Charles Lynn and Jonathan (Tanisha); eight grandchildren, Montell Marcelous, Javan Cleopas Everette, Tyler Michelle, Jor'el, Tasha LaShawn, Taka DeShawn, Ethan Daniel Anthony and Sara Simone; her sister, Maggie Delores Davis (Jones); her brother Harry Green; and a multitude of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
