Dorothy Mae Huey, lovingly known as Dot, was born to Alex and Inserrena Norswether on January 1, 1936, in Frenchman Bayou, Arkansas. She was one of eight children - Leodis (Leo), James, Thelma, Frederick (Fred), William (Bill) and Elizabeth (Liz).

The family relocated from Arkansas and made their home in the Kenwood neighborhood of Chicago, Illinois. Education and learning was very important to her. On February 2, 1963, Dorothy married Walter Columbus Huey in Chicago, Illinois, and had two beautiful children Walter Huey Jr. and Jana Huey.

Dorothy was a God fearing woman and was a dedicated member of Mount Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church. She worked at Spiegel Catalog company and Northern Trust Bank for many years. Dorothy was a dedicated mother and was always doing something fun with the kids such as taking them to the zoo, museum, or out to eat. She was also a mother to many others and offered her help and home to anyone who needed assistance.

Dorothy loved jazz music and traveling. She traveled to Nassau Bahamas, Niagara Falls and throughout the U.S. Dorothy had a true love and passion for gardening and had a green thumb. She planted a beautiful garden full of tomatoes, cucumbers, collard greens and much more. Her caring and loving spirit showed in everything she did and everyone she encountered.
