

Dorothy A. Roans

February 27, 1937 - April 16, 2012

Dorothy A. Roans, also known as "Mama", was born in Vicksburg, Mississippi on February 27, 1937 to the union of Mr. O.Z. and Mrs. Elnor Rogers.

Dorothy relocated to Chicago, Illinois during the 1960's. It was here that she settled down and raised her family. She was a loving mother, always making sure their needs were cared for.

After a careful study of God's word, Dorothy dedicated her life to Jehovah. She symbolized her dedication through water baptism becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. She followed the admonition at Matthew 24:14 to preach the good news to all she could, as she served Jehovah faithfully.

On Monday, April 16, 2012, Dorothy fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her father, O.Z. Rogers; two sisters, Emma Jean Ray and Bobby Jean Jones; and one brother, Billie Rogers.

Dorothy leaves to cherish her loving memories, her mother, Elnor Rogers; four sisters, Ciri Mae, Ruth, Shirley and Linda; two brothers, Earl Rogers (Kathy) and O.Z. Rogers (Helen); five children, Linda Byars (Joseph), Yvonne Peoples (Eugene), Debra Bassett (Dwight), Dexter and Sidney; two nieces, Lisa Gunn and Sheila Ray; one nephew, Dennis Wheatley; ten grandchildren; four great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.
