

Dossie Lee McIntosh Sr.

February 7, 1933 - March 12, 2019

Dossie Lee McIntosh, son of Thomas and Maner (Buckanan) McIntosh was born February 7, 1933 in Tupelo, Mississippi. Dossie later moved to Chicago, Illinois when he was 18 years old.

After moving to Chicago, Dossie met his loving wife, Hattie Mae (Westbrook) McIntosh, and they married in 1953. They were married for 66 years and had seven children.

Dossie worked for the Chicago Housing Authority for many years, and also volunteered his time in the neighborhood after retirement. Dossie was a loving and dedicated husband, father and grandfather. He enjoyed spending time with his family, cooking, playing the guitar, and traveling to see his family in Mississippi. Dossie was an excellent cook, he was especially known for his homemade cornbread. He was also an outstanding caregiver to his wife, Hattie. In fact, he took excellent care of her until her death.

On March 12, 2019, Dossie fell asleep in death. He was preceded in death by his parents Thomas and Maner; his wife Hattie Mae; two children Rochelle and Lester; and one granddaughter Tonyetta.

Dossie would want us to cherish his memory and go on with our lives. He leaves to cherish his memory, his children Diane (Clarence), Maner (John),

Annette, Danny, and Dossie Jr.; his grandchildren Anthony, John (Michele), Lotom, DeAngelo, Telly (Katrina), Chinita, Chirita, Renee, and Chester; and a host of great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, other relatives and friends.
