

Eddie Mae Ross

April 20, 1938 - October 29, 2020

Eddie Mae Ross, better known as “Mz. Ross” as she was lovingly regarded, was a kind, stern heart, and supplied much wisdom and knowledge to those who knew and encountered her. Ms. Ross was born on April 20, 1938 in Sunflower, Mississippi and raised by her grandmother Maggie Jackson.

Ms. Ross accepted Christ at the early age of 13, on March 19, 1951. She attended Pentecostal Church of Christ Cathedral where she was a faithful member until she could no longer attend on her own accord. Ms. Ross worked as a mail handler for the United States Post Office of Chicago, Illinois until she moved to Ford Heights, IL. Ms. Ross was a staple to the Ford Heights community, employed as an officer of the law for many years. She later transferred to the municipal office as Village Treasurer. She donned many hats throughout her career and served the Village of Ford Heights for more than 35 years. Ms. Ross was known for her “tough love”, that in which impacted so many.

On October 29, 2020, Eddie Mae Ross closed her eyes, made her transition, and rested from her labors. She was preceded in death by her son Kenneth Charles Franklin; her grandmother Maggie Jackson; and her significant other George Hynes Jr.

To celebrate her peaceful home going, are her children Ruth Ann Simpson, Ira

Burton, and Dolores Renee Ross; one granddaughter April Ross; her fraternal sister Debra Griffin-Keys; and a host of close friends and acquaintances.

Cemetery Details

Mount Glenwood Memory Gardens

18301 South Glenwood-Thornton Road
Glenwood, IL

Events

Details are pending.

Tribute Wall

“ Eddie Mae Ross

October 04, 2023 at 06:11 PM

“ 4 files added to the album Memories Album

McCullough Funeral & Cremation Services - November 05, 2020 at 07:44 AM

“ DeBey Rainey lit a candle in memory of Eddie Mae Ross

DeBey Rainey - November 04, 2020 at 09:43 PM