

Elaine Monique Lumpkins

March 5, 1977 - February 3, 2017

Elaine Monique Lumpkins, AKA Big E., was born March 5, 1977 to Gwendolyn and Cleon, and raised by her father Eli Walker Jr. in Chicago, Illinois.

From the beginning of her academic career, Elaine was always an above average student, which continued when her family moved to DeKalb, IL where she attended DeKalb High School and later Kishwaukee College. It was there the sociable, outgoing, outspoken, loving, kind, funny, fashionista that was Elaine began to emerge. Her larger than life personality and “Aint foe none” attitude won her way into the hearts of everyone who knew her.

Elaine loved poetry, basketball and hanging out with her best friends and fellow Iota Sweethearts, Lana, Shonna, Christina and Tab. Anyone who knew her knew what she loved most in this life was her children, they along with her grandchildren were her world. Elaine was unexpectedly called home on February 2, 2017.

Elaine was preceded in death by her maternal grandmother, Dorothy Lumpkins; one brother, Marcus McCaskill; and one of her Iota Sweethearts, Lana.

Elaine leaves to cherish her memories, her parents, Gwendolyn and Eli Walker and Cleon Johnson; her two beautiful daughters, Jasmine Greer and Jocelyn Lumpkins; ten sisters, Destine' Walker, Elyse Walker, Tiana Butler (Earl), Bo (Johnny) Fowler, Candice McCaskill, Krystal McCaskill, Jasmine Smith, Atia Wilson, Ryan Wilson and Sheina McBee; two brothers, Trenton Walker and Newton Johnson; two grandchildren, Tyler and Nevaeh; three aunts, Lorrie Hammette, Carolyn Lumpkins and Lee Etta Lumpkins (Nick); four uncles, Ronald Lumpkins, Lee Lumpkins Jr., Ernest Lumpkins and Charlie King; her "Ma's" Linda Wilson-Isom (Bruce) and Vanessa McCaskill; numerous nieces and nephews who loved their "TT Laine", and a host of cousins, other extended family, friends and acquaintances.
