

Elizabeth Kennedy

June 26, 1941 - June 30, 2016

Elizabeth Hayes Kennedy was born on June 26, 1941 in Benton, Mississippi to the Union of Rosa Lee Tate and Walter Hayes.

Over the years, Liz's caring and loving personality was evident in her occupation and her ministry. Liz was a long time resident of Park Forest, Illinois. For over 20 years, she was employed at the Elizabeth Ludeman Center where she took care of individuals with special needs until her retirement in 2001.

After a careful study of the Bible, Liz dedicated her life to Jehovah. On June 29, 1973, she symbolized her dedication through water baptism becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. In 2001, she began to regular pioneer at the Central Park Congregation and served Jehovah faithfully in that capacity.

Liz was known for her generous spirit and hospitality. She was a great cook and many enjoyed her delicious food as guests in her home. She expressed a desire to travel upon retirement and that she did. She got to travel to some of the most exotic places in the world as and Independent Travel Agent.

On June 30, 2016, Liz fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents, Rosa Lee and Walter Hayes; her brother, Walter Hayes Jr.; and her sister, Christine Pickett.

Liz leaves to cherish her memories, three sons, Charles Kennedy, Brian Kennedy and Kenneth Henry; one daughter, Ranada Thompson; a very close cousin, Sharon Carter; four grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; three nieces; and a host of other relatives and friends.
