January 3, 1953 - May 30, 2017

Elizabeth "Betty" Kyler was born on January 3, 1953 to Samuel and Martha Rainey. She was the second of six children.

Betty, as she was known by family and friends, dedicated her life to Jehovah at a young age and symbolized her dedication through water baptism.

She grew up in Altgeld Murray Homes (Block 16). She graduated from Carver High School and continued her education at Dawson School of Nursing and Triton College. From her youth, she always wanted to be a nurse. She had a successful career as a nurse for 27 years. She enjoyed helping others.

Betty married James L. Joiner Sr. on July 14, 1972. From that union three children were born, James L. Joiner Jr., Jason D. Joiner and Chantil M. Joiner.

Betty later was united in marriage to James Kyler, Jr. They remained together for 19 years until his death in September 2016.

Betty was a hard worker, she was kind and considerate. She worked at Briar Place Nursing and Rehabilitation Home until she fell asleep in death.

On May 30, 2017, Betty fell asleep in death after a long illness. She was preceded in death by her father, Samuel Rainey Jr.
