

Ella B. Patrick

March 1, 1927 - July 28, 2016

Ella B. Harris was born March 1, 1927 in Montgomery, Alabama. The youngest of three children born to the union of Jerry and Louise Harris. She also had two brothers, William Harris and Rufus Harris.

Ella attended school in Montgomery, AL. After moving to Chicago, Illinois in 1952, Ella married John Patrick. Industrious, she was employed in the dietary department of Cook County Hospital.

Ella was a loving mother to her two children, a son, Thomas Harris and a daughter, Louise Harris Goodloe. Her heart overflowed with love for her many grandchildren. She bestowed each and everyone with their own personal nicknames.

Ella was ever the style maven...she loved to dress. She could wear those coat and dress ensembles along with her three-inch heels.

A lover of all types of music, Ella appreciated the Beatles and incorporated that sound into her large, personal repertoire. She was a small, petite lady in size, but to those who knew her, she had a large heart when it came to her family. She loved her family.

On July 28, 2016, Ella fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her husband, John Patrick; her parents, Jerry and Louise Harris; and her two brothers, William Harris and Rufus Harris.

Ella leaves to cherish her memories and continue her legacy, her two children, Thomas Harris and Louise Goodloe; five grandchildren, Crystal Saahene, Derrick (LaRissa), Keith (Denise), Steven (Marietta) and Jeremy (Felicia); sixteen great grandchildren; four great-great grandchildren; one nephew, Charles Harris; three nieces, Carolyn, Norma and Patricia; and a host of other relatives and friends.
