June 18, 1956 - October 15, 2020

Emanuel Winfrey Jr., the son of Emanuel Winfrey Sr. and Amelia Winfrey, was born June 18, 1956. He attended and graduated from Chicago Vocational (CVS) High School.

In his love for Jehovah, Emanuel dedicated his life and symbolized his dedication by water baptism in 1972, becoming a Jehovah's Witness. He enjoyed the field ministry telling others about God's kingdom.

Emanuel met and fell in love with Gail McClendon in 1974. They were married on May 31, 1975, a union lasting 45 years.

Emanuel was affectionately known by his many friends as Mack and Pops by his family. He was a hard worker and loved his job at Ford Motor Company where he retired after 30 years. His greatest passion was barbecuing, fishing, and basketball in his younger years.

He loved his family and friends. He would always ask his grandkids 'Who loves you?' And they would say 'Granddad!'

On October 15, 2020, Emanuel Winfrey Jr. fell asleep in death. He was preceded in death by his father Emanuel Winfrey Sr. He was fully aware of and believed in the resurrection hope at John 5:28, 29. He will be truly missed.
