

Ester Florine Malone

October 11, 1927 - April 25, 2017

Florine was born October 11, 1927 in Dallas County, Arkansas to the proud parents of Marshall and Nora Joe Smith.

Florine attended Carthage Grade/High School in AR and later took college classes in Chicago.

Florine met and married Joh Henry Malone on September 22, 1944 and to this union four children were born, John, Roy, Ann and Margret Malone. In the early 50's, Florine relocated to Chicago where she met Clarence Noble and to this union three children were born, Sandrea, Steve and Harlan Noble.

Florine gave her life to Christ at an early age. Later she worshipped at Christ Unity Evangelistic Church under the leadership of Pastor Bill H. Brown as a faithful member until her illness. Florine worked 21 years as a housekeeper for Jessie L. Jackson (Civil Rights Activist) upon her retirement.

On Tuesday, April 25, 2017 at 5:10 a.m., the angel of silence whispered into the ear of our beloved Ester Florine Malone as she made her transition at Symphony of South Shore Heath Centers. She was preceded in death by her parents, Marshall and Nora Joe Smith; five children, Harlan, Ann, Sandrea, Roy and Margret; her only sister, Marlene; two brothers, Hershall and Sony; and one granddaughter, Bridget.

Florine leaves to cherish her memories, two sons, Richard (Titus) and Stevie (Phyllis); one brother, L.C. Smith; grandchildren, Crystal, Cindy, Marlon, Richard, Kenneth, Lenee, Sonya, Martel, Omar and Latina; one special grandchild, Taylor McCormick; great grandchildren, Niema and Sharon; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
