

Esther L. Jones

February 16, 1931 - October 12, 2012

Esther L. Jones was born on February 16, 1931 to Estella and Garland Price in Chicago, Illinois. She was an only child.

On October 12, 1956, Esther was united in marriage to Thomas Jones, with whom she shared 40 happy years of marriage. Together they raised a blended family, three girls, Beverly Susan and Fern and three boys, Earl, Victor and Vincent.

Esther symbolized her dedication to Jehovah on November 2, 1952 and remained a faithful servant of Jehovah for some 60 years. Throughout the years she worked tirelessly as a devoted wife and mother. She enjoyed many wonderful spiritual privileges. She had the privilege of attending the 1958 Divine Name Convention at Yankee Stadium, and an International Convention in Budapest, Hungary. She served as a regular pioneer for several years. As a mother she gave her children a rich spiritual heritage.

Esther truly enjoyed life. She enjoyed her family, family dinners, friends, traveling and shopping, decorating and good food. Most of all she enjoyed being at every meeting and assembly no matter how she felt. Esther always had a beautiful smile and a warm greeting to all she met. And if she could, she would do anything for you, she was very generous. She loved all her children and her grandchildren, great grandchildren, daughters-in-law and sons-in-law dearly.

On October 12, 2012, Esther fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her mother, Estella Price; her husband, Thomas Jones; one son Earl Campbell.

Esther leaves to cherish her memories, three daughters, Beverly (Hershel), Susan (Al) and Fern (George); two sons, Victor (Angie) and Vincent (Faye); her daughter-in-law Jackie: eight grandchildren, Earl (Tasha), Anthony (Daisy), Maurice (LaMonica), Jared (Ebony), Aaron (JoAnna), Jalen, Jordan and Gabrille; ten great grandchildren; and a host of close and loving friends and extend family.
