

Etoile Brown

April 8, 1928 - March 19, 2014

Etoile Williams Brown was born on April 8, 1928 in Canute, Oklahoma to Mabel McKnight Williams and John Williams Sr. Following the death of her father, her family relocated to her mother's hometown of El Reno, OK.

After graduating from Booker T. Wasihngton High School, Etoile moved to Chicago, Illinois to attend nursing school. Quickly discovering nursing wasn't for her, she changed paths.

Etoile united in marriage with George Brown. To this union four children were born. Once her children were older, she began working for The Woodlawn Organization. She eventually began working for The City of Chicago, where she retired as Supervisor in the Accounting Department.

Etoile was creative; her home was once filled with beautiful oversized flowers she handcrafted from crepe paper. She loved to bake; you could go in her refrigerator at any given moment and find a pie crust ready for that famous sweet potato pie filling of hers. Etoile had a great sense of humor and was never at a loss for words when it came to her opinion.

On March 19, 2014, Etoile fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents; her siblings: Johnny Williams Jr., Lonnie Williams, Eva Smith, Vesta McFadden, Maxie Brown, Bertha Williams and Jettie Richey; and her sons: Marcellus, Gardell and Jethro Brown (Anita).

Etoile will be missed by many, but leaves her legacy to live on in, her daughter: Serena Nocentelli (Ronald); grandchildren: Shawn Nocentelli, Kristina Nocentelli, Desiree Coleman (Maurice), Janita Williams and Jarrell Brown; her siblings: Lena Soule, Gladys Wynn (Dave Sr.), Viola Wormley and Capp Wormley II; great grandchildren: Mahogany Lyons, Jeremiah Brumfield, Xavier, Gabrielle and Nathan Coleman; and a multitude of other relatives, friends and acquaintances.
