

Eula Mae Smith

January 4, 1936 - October 13, 2017

Born in Leflore County, Mississippi on January 4, 1936, Eula was the daughter of Alice (Martin) Jones and Wiley Jones.

She belonged to Church of Christ in Deerfield Beach, Florida for many years. Eula was well known for her green thumb, her incredible sewing skills, and her culinary talents. She also took pride in her work in ceramics and interior decorating.

Eula is probably most remembered for her remarkable singing ability. She was always ready with a song regardless of where she was - whether at church, at home, or in front of complete strangers. No one was a stranger to Eula though; her positive, fun-loving, pleasant personality was inviting to everyone. She loved to laugh, make others laugh, and she loved being around children.

Eula was loved in life, will be loved in death, and missed by many. Eula Mae Smith fell asleep in death on Friday, October 13, 2017 in Portage, Indiana. She is preceded in death by her mother Alice Jones, and her brothers Orbie Jones and James Jones.

Eula leaves to cherish her loving memories her children, Eddie Roy (LuAnn) Jones and Joe Nathan Smith Jr., and Angela and Lamond Walls whom she raised as her children; her grandchildren, Michelle Santana, Claudia Jones and Caleb Jones; four great-grandchildren; her siblings, Bessie Ruth Harris, Hattie Hogan, and Monroe (Leoma) Jones; nieces and nephews; and a host of other family and friends.
