

Faye Ella Hicks-Jackson

June 18, 1948 - October 8, 2018

Faye Ella Hicks was born June 18, 1948, in Chicago, Illinois to Lacy Charles and Verma Lee Hicks. She graduated from Wendell Phillips High School. After high school, Faye received her Degree from Sawyer Business College.

Faye's firm steady manner made her a strong black woman with an unshakeable belief in Christ. As a teenager she worked at a local drug store where she stopped a young man from robbing the store because she was "just ready to go home". She chastised the young man and told him he had been raised better than that.

In 1973, she met and remained committed to Berlin Jackson aka Michael, the love of her life. Out of this union was born four beautiful children: Ursula, Amanda, Sparky and Penella.

Faye was an extraordinary woman who was a a wonderful wife, mother, sister and co-worker. She had a heart of gold and was always willing to lend a helping hand with a warm smile. She was beautiful inside and out. She will truly be missed by all for her patience, gentleness, kindness, quietness of spirit, and generosity of heart.
