

Felicia Bridges

October 23, 1947 - November 28, 2020

Felicia Ann Bridges was born October 23, 1947 to Jewel and Geneva Curly in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

She was preceded in death by her parents and two sisters Lila Jean and Diane and one brother John Callum: two children Jerry and Sheila.

She accept Christ at an early age and was a member of Greater Harvest Missionary Baptist Church. Felicia was dedicated to playing the tambourine. She did not just enjoy it but playing it brought a bright smile to her face.

On May 23, 1964, Felicia was united in holy matrimony to her “Kingman” Melvin Bridges, to this union were born two children Marvel and Lenell. In addition, she loved and raised five more children as her own.

She worked from 1965 to 1971 at Campbell’s soup and Kennedy King College until she went home at Melvin’s request to become a full-time Domestic Engineer.

Felicia loved to entertain, cook and laugh to the fullest. She was well known for his quick wit and outspokenness. Her family clichés helped many young people and old understand life and will continue her legacy in their hearts.

She departed this life on November 28, 2020, leaving memories of life to be cherished by her children Marvel, Lenell, Yolabdia, Antrone and Ronnell; grandson Jeffery affectionately known as “Jackrabbit”; her siblings Wayne Curley (Sheree), Rosetta Curley, and Shirley Curley; and a host of special grandchildren, cousins, nieces, nephews, and extended family.
