

Flora Franklin

February 12, 1936 - June 24, 2013

Flora Franklin was born February 12, 1936 to Henry and Mary Lockett in East St. Louis, Illinois.

Flora was united in Holy Matrimony with George Franklin. To this union loving union that lasted 41 years, six children were born. She was a loving wife, mother and grandmother. She loved her grandchildren with all her heart. She engaged in spending time with them and watching them grow.

After learning God's word the Bible, Flora dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism on November 21, 1970. She remained faithful to Jehovah. She devoted over 27 years to Regular Pioneering before her death. She excitedly talked about returning to the Pioneer School for the 3rd time this coming August. Her faith in the promise of the resurrection at John 5:28, 29, was evident when she said "If I don't make it to the pioneer school I will see everyone in Paradise!" Flora touched the lives of many people with her smile, positive attitude and love for the ministry.

On June 24, 2013, Flora fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents, and her husband, George Franklin.

Flora leaves to cherish her memories, her children, Carlton, Glenn (Edna), Vincent, Sharon, Brenda and Aaron (Shanta); her grandchildren, Mallory

(Arick), Siera, Deant'e, Sheri, Maya, Saige and Aiden; and a host of family and friends.
