

Frank Henderson

December 14, 1937 - August 1, 2012

Frank Henderson was born on December 14, 1937 in Long Beach, Mississippi to the union of Frank and Alice Emma Henderson.

Frank received his formal education in Mississippi and later moved to Chicago, Illinois to work in the steel mills.

He had a deep seated love for God which led him to study the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses. After a careful consideration of the Bible, Frank dedicated his life to Jehovah and symbolized his dedication through water baptism in October of 1996. He had many privileges of service in the Midway Plaisance congregation which he had the pleasure of attending with his wife Denise. In 2001, Frank entered the regular pioneer service, he served faithfully until his health began to change.

Frank loved three things, his God Jehovah, his family and his guitar. He enjoyed playing his guitar for family and friends.

On August 1, 2012 Frank Henderson fell asleep in death with his family by his side and the hope of the resurrection firmly fixed in his heart. He was preceded in death by his parents, Frank and Alice; his siblings, Morris, Earl and Deloris (John); one step child, Vanessa; and one grandchild.

Frank leaves to cherish his memory and continue his legacy, his wife, Denise; five children, Samantha (Stacey), Frank (Sheila), Erica, Eric and Jeremy; nineteen grandchildren; four step children, Lynn, Mahiya (Arthur), Monique and Raquel; thirteen step grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends too numerous to mention.

Tribute Wall

“ Frank Henderson

October 04, 2023 at 06:11 PM

“ I can say that there only 3 men in my life i loved my dad, grandfather, and Frank Henderson, who had help me more than he knew. see you later my friend.

Darrell Williams

Darrell Williams - September 20, 2012 at 03:43 PM